

Henry Watkins, Jr.

Henry Watkins, Jr. headed the family-owned Naples Beach Hotel and Golf Club for many years, hosting professional, amateur, junior and charity golf tournaments including the Florida PGA Championship beginning in 1953 and the Florida State Senior Open starting in 1977. He was a member of the South Florida PGA Advisory Board 1982-1989. He also served on numerous civic and charitable committees in Southwest Florida, including the Episcopal Diocese, the Collier County Commission and Collier County School Board, the Naples Chamber of Commerce, Tourist Development Council, Naples Community Hospital, Edison Community College and Naples High School.